

BULLDOGS WITH AKC CANINE GOOD CITIZEN TITLES

Compiled by Bea Page Thank you to these sources for titles data: Ed Scully, the BCA/The Bulldogger, AKC's online records

*AKC's Canine Good Citizen Program launched in 1989 as a way to promote responsible dog ownership and give recognition to dogs trained to display good manners at home and in the community. Owners whose dogs pass CGC testing administered by a registered CGC Evaluator may apply to AKC (& pay a processing fee) to have a CGC certificate issued. On January 1st of 2013, the AKC began offering owners the option of paying a higher fee for CGC to be recorded as an official title (rather than just an award/certification). Dogs who are issued a title certificate have CGC listed as a suffix to their registered AKC names, and are included in AKC's monthly titles reports. Dogs who pass the testing, but whose owners do not complete the titling process & pay the higher fee, are still considered to be Canine Good Citizens, but will not be officially recorded as CGC titleholders, and will not have CGC listed after their names on AKC documents. After CGC became a titling option in 2013, AKC expanded the program by adding Advanced & Urban tests & titles (CGCA & CGCU). To get an old (prior to 2013) CGC certification recorded & published by AKC as a title, owners must apply & pay a fee to have the certification grandfathered in. Here's the link to obtain the form & info:

Bulldogs with documented CGC certifications

This list is shared to give recognition to Bulldogs whose owners have provided a copy of the dog's CGC certificate, or confirmation from the CGC Evaluator who administered their testing, to validate that the dog passed CGC certification. CGC certifications earned prior to 2013 (when AKC implemented the optional CGC titling process) were not recorded by AKC as "titles", but dogs who passed testing prior to 2013 are still legitimate Canine Good Citizens, as are dogs who passed testing after 2013, but whose owners did not apply for title recognition.
